

Management Analyst

Goleta Sanitary District

$34.07 - $43.48/hr

Application deadline: Friday, May 20, 2016

Performs various high level administrative tasks including but is not limited to preparing requests for proposals, grant applications and agenda reports, administers public outreach programs, consultant contracts and grant programs, prepares and monitors departmental budgets, conducts policy analysis, and assists with personnel recruitments. A detailed description for this position and application can be found at www.goletasanitary.org. Excellent employee benefits package provided.

Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university with major course work in public/business administration, economics, or a related field. Four years of progressively responsible public sector experience.